“Make sure to bring your appetite and plenty of money for tips,” said Bill Sims, captain of the city’s Relay for Life team. “All tips and dinner proceeds will benefit Relay for Life. Your donations are tax deductible and receipts will be available for anyone who needs them.”

Cash, check and credit cards will be accepted at the fundraiser and parties will be seated on a first-come, first-serve basis. In addition to dinner, there will be a 50/50 raffle and tickets will be sold for items to be auctioned off at the American Cancer Society’s Relay for Life event. Items include an art piece by local artist Robert Warren, a handmade Ohio State afghan and a quilt.

“The city’s Relay for Life team would like to thank Shade on the Canal for donating their Pine Room, staff time and food proceeds,” Sims added. “We appreciate their assistance and the attendance of anyone who is willing to help us support this worthy cause.”
